

Literacy Summer Camp 2022

The Kahnawake Education Center in partnership with First Nations Education Council are pleased to once again offer a free Literacy Camp to your children this summer. This literacy and wellness camp aims to promote a love of reading and learning, as well as increased self-confidence of children between the ages of 5 and 9 years old. *Students registered in a KEC school will be given priority.

Programming at the camp will encourage children to develop their love of reading and books through crafts, reading, singing, writing, and playing games. Activities are fun and interactive and will enhance learning outside of the school setting. Occasional local trips will be scheduled, example splash pad.
